		GALLANTRY
H	001B	Group of 5: D.R. Bond 206420 DFC dated 1945; 1939/45 Star; Italy Star; War Medal and Africa Service medal. "Lieutenant Derek Roland Bond (206420V) S.A.A.F. No 15 (S.A.A.F) Sqn One night in APRIL, 1945, this officer was detailed for a reconnaissance in the Padua area. A convoy of enemy transport was located. Whilst making his attack on this target his aircraft sustained serious damage and caught fire which spread from the cockpit and back along the fuselage. Lieutenant Bond gave the order to abandon aircraft. Although he sustained burns to his face, hands and legs, he remained at the controls and kept the aircraft steady so that his comrades could leave with a grater measure of safety. The fire was growing in intensity. The cockpit became almost enveloped. Not until he was satisfied that his comrades had left would he leave the controls. As he prepared to leave himself, the aircraft exploded. Lieutenant Bond was thrown out. He had apparently been stuck by a heavy piece of debris and rendered unconscious. Nevertheless, his parachute opened in some way and he came down safely to the ground. It was here that he was found in a semi-conscious state and taken to hospital a short distance away. In hazardous circumstances this officer set a magnificent example of courage, coolness and fortitude" Including 6 pages of research		55000
